2. "Phone Call Bingo" Play Across the Generations

This bingo is a great way to get to know people. Share answers and tell stories. It is great for beginning and keeping conversations going. It works the same for a grandparent to get to know a teen grandchild as a teen to get to know more about their heritage.

B = Being

What color are your eyes?
Where were you born
What size shoe do you wear
Can you wiggle your ears
Can you roll your tongue

I = I like... how about you?

I like to garden
I love to listen to music
I like to bake
I love to travel
My favorite color is...

N = Never have I ever

Owned a pet
Lived on a farm
Eaten escargot
Gone Sky Diving
Suba Dive

G = GO

Which city would you like to visit?
Which country would you like to travel?
Where would you like to go to visit a relative?
Would you want to go by air, bus, train, or RV
Do you aspire to fly in a spacecraft?

O= Occupation

What age did you start working?
What was your first job?
What was your favorite job?
What job do you wish you had done?
Word of wisdom about working

3. FAITH IN ACTION:

Journal about your BINGO experience. List others you could get to know.
